SEA SALTED CARAMELS

(125g mixed box)

for sheer delight there's little to match NikoB's sumptuously soft, dark chocolate caramels and milk chocolate rum & hazelnut caramels. Quite divine. 10.50

DESSERT WINES

in order of richness ...

Dindarello, Maculan, Italy 2016
truly delightful – like a light, sweet-but-not-cloying cashmere, baby's blanket. Yup. 7.00 (100ml)

Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc, Morandé, Chile 2015
An utterly pleasing sweet wine redolent of tropical fruit & honey but with a good acidity on the finish. We love it. 6.50 100ml

Finca Antigua, Moscatel, Spain 2015
This naturally sweet wine has all the voluptuousness you'd expect from muscat grapes dried to raisin-ripeness. Add in a bright, clean finish and it's so much nicer than the norm. 7.50 (100ml)

Visciolata del Cardinale, Italy 2016
even the nose is fantastic: this truly remarkable marriage of cabernet sauvignon with sour cherry juice is beyond sensational. 7.00 (70ml)

WHITE PEONY

a white China tea with creamy notes of melon and a lingeringly sweet finish, this tea is simply made from first flush and unopened silvery buds. 3.75

DARJEELING BADAMTAM FIRST FLUSH

Darjeeling is rightly known as the 'champagne' of teas. 'First flush' signifies it is made from young, succulent shoots picked in the springtime. The resulting tea is delicate, fresh and flowery. 3.25

CEYLON ORANGE PEKOE

Orange Pekoe is a grading term that denotes whole leaves rather than cheap 'fannings' are used. Bright, crisp and full-bodied, this is a truly delightful tea from the country now known as Sri Lanka. 3.25

MANUKA (DECAFFEINATED)

grown exclusively at Tregothnan in Cornwall since the 1880s, the name derives from the New Zealand honey, manuka. Apart from having antibacterial properties, the tea is pretty, light and, yes, honied. 3.25
